

*L*eading people and leading organizations is the cornerstone of our chapter's philosophy of providing quality programs and services to our membership. Our goal is to improve the professional knowledge and development of our members as strategic business partners. Likewise, we are committed to providing the highest caliber of programs, seminars and professional resources that will enhance the performance and reputation of the organization through aligning values and vision with business goals.

Sponsorship is critical to the overall strategy of the chapter, ensuring the highest level of excellence is maintained through serving the HR profession. In order to maintain the margin of excellence that we have established for our chapter, there are a number of initiatives that need partnership support.

*S*ponsorship opportunities include:

Benefactor $1,000 and up

Our most prestigious level of sponsorship is reserved for our distinguished benefactors. These partners have demonstrated a commitment to the advancement of the HR profession through their generous level of giving.

Patron $500-$999

Sponsors that support the HR profession at the patron level play a key role in providing financial means to successfully enable the chapter to offer professional programs, speakers and relevant professional resources, advancing the reputation of the chapter and its membership.

Partner $1-$499

Sponsors that support the HR profession at the partner level provide foundational support to the chapter through the investment of time, talent, or financial resources to advance the profession. Partner sponsorships directly influence professional development opportunities and have a significant impact on ensuring the success of the chapter.
